

Quiz - What is Critical Thinking

1. Which is the presenter, Kristin Dahl's definition of Critical Thinking?

1 / 1 point

- ☒ Critical thinking is the controlled, purposeful thinking directed toward a goal.
- ☐ Critical thinking is taking on the mindset of your opponent (the hacker for example) and trying to think like him/her.
- ☐ Critical thinking is a mode the brain goes into during critical or emergency situations.
- ☐ Critical thinking involves always looking for the flaw or weakness in any given situation.

✓ Correct

Correct! Critical thinking involves the controlled and purposeful thinking directed toward a goal.

2. The Critical Thinking Model presented places critical thinking at the overlap of which four (4) competencies?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ The strength necessary to be critical of others who are advocating unsafe practices.
- ☒ Critical thinking characteristics (attitudes & behaviors).

✓ Correct

Partially correct! this is one of the 4 components of critical thinking.

- ☐ The ability to place yourself in the mindset of an adversary or attacker.
- ☒ Interpersonal skills and competencies.

✓ Correct

Partially correct! this is one of the 4 components of critical thinking.

- ☒ Technical and experimental knowledge, intellectual skills and competencies.

✓ Correct

Partially correct! this is one of the 4 components of critical thinking.

- ☒ Technical skills and competencies.

✓ Correct

Partially correct! this is one of the 4 components of critical thinking.

3. Put yourself in others' shoes - reframe the problem is an example of which of the 5 Key Skills of Critical Thinking?

- ☒ Understand Context
- ☐ Identify Key Drivers
- ☐ Challenge Assumptions
- ☐ Consider Alternatives

✓ Correct

Correct! It is important to be able to see the points of views of others in order to understand the full context of a situation.